KNIGHTS HAVE BIG TIME

INSTITUTION OF CLARKSBURG COUNCIL NO. 872, KNIGHTS OF CO-LUMBUS, SUNDAY WAS AUSPIC-CIOUS EVENT.

MEMBERS OF ORDER FROM ALL OVER THE STATE PARTICIPATE-- SEVENTY CHARTER MEMBERS IN NEW COUNCIL.

Institution Ceremonies Held in K. of P. Hall Sunday Afternoon and Big Banquet Given in the Waldo Hotel With Three Hundred Knights in Attendance.

Knights of Columbus from all point of the state were in the city Sunday attending the institution of Clarksburg Council No. 872. The ceremonies of institution were held in the K. of P. Hall in Glen Elk Sunday afternoon and at 9 o'clock that night a very enjoyable banquet was given in the dining hall of the Waldo Hotel.

From 1 o'clock in the afternoon until 7:30 o'clock in the evening the institution ceremonies were held in the K. of P. Hall. The new council was instituted under the charge of Dr.
Charles Wingerter and staff, of Wheeling. The first degree was exemplified by the Piedmont council, the second by the Grafton council and the third degree by Dr. Wingerter, the state deputy, and his staff, of Wheeling. There were 70 charter members in the new council. At the next meeting of the council a permanent local organization will be perfected and officers for the ensuing term will be elected.

At 9 o'clock the Knights assembled in the lobby of the Waldo Hotel and shortly afterward the banquet hall was opened and they took places at the tables. Fully 300 members of the order were seated at the ten long banquet tables, which were spread from left to right in the hall. The beautiful floral decorations, snowy white linen, gleaming silverware and table embellishments, together with all of the excellent appointments, made the banquet hall a place of beauty. Vincent's Orchestra, of Grafton, was stationed in the lobby near the entrance to the dining hall and rendered an excellent program of music during the evening.

Banqueting such a large number of people is usually a difficult matter, but the excellent facilities of the hotel and the able management rendered the serving of the assembly as easy as though it had been a party of twenty.

The following very palatable menu was served by a corps of 20 waiters, and the Knights did not hesitate in doing full justice to the spread:

- Consomme en Tasse Fried Fillet of Sole, Sauce Tartar Potatoes Waldo
Radishes
Olives
Braised Sweetbreads aux Fines Herbes
Green Peas
Banana Fritters, Sauce Cognac
Young Turkey, Cranberry Sauce
New Potatoes
String Beans
Lettuce and Tomato Nesselrode Pudding
Assorted Cake
Imperial Cheese
Toasted Wafer
Coffee

T. M. Donahue, one of the leading figures in the institution of the new council, presided at the head banquet table as toastmaster. After the courses had been served Mr. Donahue introduced Mayor P. B. Shields, who in a short but very appropriate address extended a hearty welcome to all of the visiting Knights and expressed the hope that the Knights would always remember Clarksburg and make many more like visits to the city. He also touched upon the wonderful rapid growth of the order and commended the objects and principles of the organization.

Rev. Father Campbell, of Baltimore, was introduced next by the toastmaster and he gave a very pleasing address upon the occasion, thanking the Knights for their loyal hospitality and extending the hope that the new council would grow and flourish in Clarksburg.

Attorney W. Scott, of Clarksburg, next gave a very entertaining address upon the subject "Our Country's Constitution." He said the Knights of Columbus was not only a benevolent order, but a patriotic order, and said that one of the cardinal principles of it was the furtherance of patriotism. The constitution of the United States, he said, was the most remarkable governmental constitution of any nation of the world in present or past ages, and that the future would see all governments with similar constitutions and all men enjoying freedom. He commended most forcibly the patriotic tenet of the order.

Dr. C. A. Wingerter, of Wheeling, spoke next the subject of "Knighthood." He spoke of the growth and spread of the Catholic denomination in our country in its earlier as well as its later history, and told of the prominent part in the formation, protection and expansion of the country taken by Catholics.

The Knights of Columbus, he said, is a benevolent organization conducted in subordination to the Catholic church, as all organizations of all kinds should be.
While in ancient times knights defended their honor and the honor of their country by going forth to the fight clad in heavy armor, the true knights of today did the same thing, only by a different manner than that practiced by the knights of medieval times. The spirit of knighthood lives today and the Knights of Columbus strive to live up to its ideals and be true to its cardinal principles. Striving to live for others, guarding the sacred honor of family and country the Knights of Columbus stood ready as the knights of olden times to sacrifice their fortunes, lives and honor.
Dr. Wingerter is an eloquent speaker and his address was received with warm applause.

Rev. Father Gallagher, of Maryland; Mr. Bowen, of Canton, O., and Rev. P. M.
Schoenen, of Clarksburg, responded to the toastmaster in neat and appropriate addresses, which were well received.
Father Schoenen spoke upon the subject of "Catholic Society" and told of the higher ideals of such.

The evening's festivities then came to an end and the Knights were warm in their praise of the enjoyable time they had during the day and evening.

UNION

Gets an Injunction Restraining a Firm From Employing any But Union Men--Contract Is Inviolable.

Commissioner Papin at Milwaukee has issued an injunction restraining William Morwitz, Charles Morwitz and Charles Gusta, tailors, from employing any except union workmen. They are alleged to have signed a contract with the Milwaukee Custom Tailors' Union, and they are restrained from violating the terms of their contract. This is the first time in this state that a union has obtained an injunction restraining firms from employing non-union workmen.

DEATH

Of Little Miss Overton Owens, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Q. Owens, Occurs at Home in Broad Oaks Saturday Evening.

Little Overton Q. Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Q. Owens, died at her home in Broad Oaks Saturday evening after a brief illness. She was taken sick on Wednesday. The deceased was 11 years of age. She was a bright little girl with an unusually sunny and happy temperament, and many little friends and playmates are shocked and grieved over her untimely death. The funeral took place from the late home Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock, burial being in the Masonic cemetery.

MEMORIAL DAY

Observed by Anita Lodge, Colored Knights of Pythias, Sunday--Graves in Elk View Cemetery Were Decorated.

Anita Lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias, colored, observed their annual memorial day Sunday afternoon. The members of the lodge met in their lodge rooms in the D. K. Reed Hall and marched in a body to Elk View cemetry, where the graves of the departed brothers were decorated with the beautiful and impressive ritual of the order.
There was a good turnout of the members and a large number of visitors witnessed the ceremonies.

STANDARD MUST GO

GEORGE RICE, OF MARIETTA, WANTS GREAT OIL COMPANY CHARTER ANNULLLED.

Files Bill in New Jersey Court Charging That It Is Illegal and Operates in Violation of Anti-Trust Law.

By Associated Press.

Trenton, N. J., June 27.—Counsel for George Rice, of Marietta, O., today filed a bill in court here for a dissolution of the charter of the Standard Oil Company, charging that it is illegal and operating in violation of the anti-trust law. He asks for a receiver.

CANDIDATE FOR NOMINATION FOR SUPREME JUDGESHIP

Judge James A. Brown, of Kingwood, one of the state's most eminent jurists and most faithful Republicans, was here Monday. He is a candidate for the nomination for supreme judge and was here in the interest of his candidacy. Judge Brown has many warm friends here as well as in many other sections of the state.

SETTLEMENT OF SHERIFF

With the County Court Has Begun and Will Cover Several Days' Time-- Other Court Matters.

The county court resumed its sittings Monday morning, with all the members present except Capt. Minter, who reported in the afternoon.

T. B. and D. S. Smith were exonerated from the payment of taxes on property valued at $1,130, on account of erroneous assessment. The court then took up the annual settlement with the sheriff and will be thus engaged throughout the week.

BARTLETT PURCHASES BATTEN MEAT MARKET

Millard F. Bartlett purchased the Third street meat market Monday of E.
A. Batton, who has very successfully run it the past few months. He took possession immediately. Mr. Bartlett formerly owned this market and sold it to Mr. Batton some time ago. Mr. Bartlett will endeavor to make it even better than it has been.

U. S. COURT

Held in Special Session by Judge Goff to Further Hear Wabash and Baltimore & Ohio Controversy.

Judge Nathan Goff held a special session of United States court here Monday to further hear the controversy between the Wabash and Baltimore & Ohio railroads over the matter of crossing the Parkersburg branch in West Grafton at grade. The matter in particular at the special session was the motion of the Buckhannon & Northern Railroad Company, a part of the Wabash system, to file a petition asking the court to decide as to whether the suit should be brought in equity or at law. After the argument the court decreed that the petition be filed.

The Wabash was represented by Judge Reese Blizzard, of Parkersburg, and W.
Scott Meredith, of Fairmont, while John Bassel and J. W. Davis appeared for the Baltimore & Ohio.

Buyers Glen Elk Meat Market.

Norman & Carpenter sold their Glen Elk meat market on Clark street Saturday evening to M. E. McDonaldson, of Bedford, Pa. Mr. McDonaldson is experienced in the business and will doubtless not only hold the present large pa-tronnage but build it up very extensively.

Will Help Run Big Fair.

C. W. Rinker, late of the Imperial cafe, has resigned his position to accept a place on the board of directors of the World's Fair at St. Louis, and will leave in a day or so to begin the duties of the new position.

VALUABLE DIAMOND WAS LOST

By Mr. John F. Murphy, of Wheeling But Little Colored Boy Brought It to the Telegram Office and It Was Returned to Him.

John F. Murphy, of Wheeling, who came to this city Saturday to attend the big doings of the Knights of Columbus, had quite an experience Monday morning. Early in the morning he experienced the unpleasant sensation of being very much deflected and down-beated. About noon, however, his emotions were changed to the other extreme and he was very light-hearted and happy. The cause of these unusual emotional transitions was the loss of a big $300 solitaire diamond stud, which he sustained some time Sunday. Mr. Murphy came in the Daily Telegram office and had a "lost ad." placed in the Tele-gram's want department and about noon a little colored boy with instinctive intuition brought the diamond into the Telegram office before the issue of the paper containing the lost advertisement had been printed. He had found it on the B. & O. depot platform. The little fellow was taken to Mr. Murphy at the Waldo Hotel and the big diamond was returned to its owner, who rewarded the finder magnificently. This incident goes to show what a wonderful power the Daily Telegram is as an advertising medium.

TERRIFIC THUNDER STORM

The Fiercest in Years, Passes Over Quiet Dell and Vicinity Sunday Afternoon Lightning Plays Havoc.

Residents in and about Quiet Dell experienced one of the heaviest rain and thunder storms that they have had in that section for years on Sunday afternoon. The rain came down in torrents and the lightning and thunder was something terrific. Lightning struck a big hay stack on Sidney Raymond's place and it was burned up. Several trees were struck. For a good while the residents of that section were considerably uneasy over the storm and thought they were going to have a cloudburst.

WOODMEN INITIATE

Dozen or More Candidates Saturday Night as the Closing Ceremonies of Their Log Rolling.

The Woodmen of the World, who held a big log rolling here Saturday, finished the ceremonies of the day in the Reed Hall Saturday midnight. A dozen or more candidates were initiated and several enthusiastic speeches were made.
The Grafton camp, accompanied by its own band, came up in the evening and participated in the exercises. A balloon ascension about 8 o'clock in front of the J. B. Smith hall by some of the boys was a feature of the evening. There was some parading, too, that added interest to the occasion.

Child Died on Birthday.

The one-year-old daughter of Mrs.
Mary E. Johnson, colored, of Raymond's Grove, died Sunday evening. The child was one year old on the day of its death.
The funeral occurred Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, burial being in the Elk View cemetery.

LIGHTNING

Strikes a Barn at Sandstone and Injures Eight Persons and One Will Not Recover.

By Associated Press.

Hinton, W. Va., June 27.—Two men and six women entered a barn yesterday afternoon near Sandstone to escape the storm. Lightning struck the barn and all were rendered unconscious. Bettie Gwinn is not expected to recover. Anna Gwinn and Ruth Stickler are in a serious condition. The others were Wade Sur-baugh, Frank Gwinn, Mand Surbaugh and Mrs. A. J. Stickler.

Improving Jewelry Store.

J. H. Krohne, the enterprising and popular Third street jeweler, is having a new front at his jewelry store put in an improvement that will make the building look much more modern and in keeping with his store.

JEALOUS

May Result in Murder of Rival—Tried to Kill Victim, Escorting the Young Lady Home.

By Associated Press.

Portsmouth, O., June 27.—Joseph Bertram was arrested today charged with cutting with intent to kill George Dabney last night, waylaying him as he was going home with a young lady. Jealousy was the cause, Dabney's injuries are serious.

Miss Hess Visits Home.

Miss Phila Hess came up from Fairmont and spent Sunday at home. Miss Hess is an efficient linotype operator in the office of the Fairmont West Virginian. She states that she likes the position very much and is glad she learned that part of the printing business.

NEGRO FIEND

PROVE ESCORT AWAY AT POINT OF REVOLVER AND THEN CRIMI-NALLY ASSAULTED YOUNG LADY

Still at Large, but Most Extensive Search Is Being Made--Ample Protection Arranged For Him, If Caught-- Victim Rests Easy.

Evansville, Ind., June 27.—The negro who criminally assaulted Clara Wein-back, aged 18 years, last night, after driving away her escort with a revolver is still at large. A most extensive search is being made for him. Ample protection has been arranged for him, if he is arrested. Miss Weinback is resting easy.
The police, after talking with Miss Weinback today, believe the assault was made by a white man who was a rival of Snythe, who was her escort last night.

FUELIST JUDGE THROWN FROM HORSE

By Associated Press.
Jackson, Ky., June 27.—Judge James Hargis was thrown from a horse today and probably fatally hurt.

BEATTY ACQUITTED

Federal Court Jury at Parkersburg Says He Is Not Guilty of Attempt to Blackmail Blackshere.

Edward Beatty, of Mannington, was acquitted Saturday night in federal court at Parkersburg of the charge of an attempt to blackmail B. F. Blackshere, some months ago of $25,000, by writing him a letter and telling him that he must deposit the money on the roadside some distance from his home on a certain night.

Blackshere notified Postoffice Inspector Sam Hooten and a decoy package was made up. Mr. Blackshere took the ride and deposited the package, but the blackmailer got wise and escaped. Shortly afterward Beatty was arrested and Hooten got a specimen of his handwriting.
The government tried to prove that it was the same as the letter written to Blackshere, but the expert in the case had his evidence broken down on cross examination. That left only circumstantial evidence for the government to rely upon. The defense established a sort of alibi by proving where Beatty was shortly after the exact time the hold-up occurred.

The jury was out several hours and brought in a verdict of acquittal about 10 o'clock Saturday night and the prisoner was discharged.

The case has attracted much attention owing to the fact that a few months previous the home of the Floyds was blown up in that neighborhood, supposedly for the purpose of robbery, and this black-mailing scheme seemed to be of the same dare-devil nature. It is now improbable that the real blackmailer will ever be apprehended.

SMALL WRECK

Occurs on the West Virginia & Pittsburg, but No One Was Injured-- Passengers Walked Into Town.

A small freight wreck occurred on the West Virginia & Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio near the Monticello brick yards Saturday evening and passengers coming down from Weston and other points had to foot it into the city, walking about three miles. Two freight cars were derailed and the track was blocked and torn up a considerable distance. No one was hurt.

OIL NEWS

Considerable Activity in the Various Fields of the County, but New Wells Are All Light.

In the Wallace district, in this county, the South Penn has shot its No. 3 on the Omer E. Hall farm and the well is producing 110 barrels. In the same district, E. S. Easton's No. 6 on the B. F.
Rogers farm is holding up at 140 barrels a day.

In the Folsom district, the South Penn Company's No. 51 Genie Robinson's, No.
4 C. E. Robinson's, No. 2 Jesse Ascherst and No. 5 M. P. Dye are holding up at 100, 120, 100 and 120 barrels a day, respectively.

In the Salem district, this county, the South Penn Company's No. 2 on the W.
A. Rogers farm is producing 105 barrels a day.

On the east side of the Folsom district, in this county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its test on the Agnes Looman farm and has a show for a light producer in the Gordon. In the same district, the same company has drilled its No. 8 on the C. E. Robinson farm 45 feet into the stray sand above the Gordon, and has shut down to move back the boiler.

In the Salem district the South Penn Company has drilled its test on the A.
W. Coffield farm 545 feet into the stray sand and has developed no oil or gas.

In the Folsom district, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 2 on the S. A. Cavalier farm into the stray sand 60 feet and has a good gasser. The same company's No. 6 on the T. J. J.
Parish is fishing below the Gordon sand.
The same company has drilled its No. 8 on the C. E. Robinson farm 45 feet into the stray sand and has developed no oil or gas. The test on the Agnes Looman farm has been drilled three feet into the Gordon sand and has developed no oil or gas.

At Salem the South Penn Oil Company has completed its test well on the Davison & Smith farm and has as now for a 35-barrel producer in the Gordon sand.

Southwest of the Camden Somers farm, in Calhoun county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the Wolverton farm 1,000 feet below the Big Injun sand and will abandon it. This test showed no oil in any of the regular sand formations.

North of the Camden Somers farm the same company has drilled its test well on the R. E. Gardner farm into the Maxon sand and has developed a strong gas pressure. The well is spraying a little oil from that level. The same company's No. 6 on the Camden Somers farm is due in the Berea sand.

BASE BALL LEAGUE

Teams of West Virginia Cities May Be Formed If Movement Started at Parkersburg Is Put Through.

A movement is on foot at Parkersburg to form a West Virginia baseball league among the cities of Clarksburg, Parkersburg, Morgantown, Fairmont, Mann-ington, Sistersville, Grafton and Piedmont.
Marietta will also be included, owing to her proximity to West Virginia. Regular umpires will be appointed and a schedule will be made out at once, and with good support from the fans there is no reason why the league should not be a success and with Clarksburg a leading team.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

For the Ensuing Term of Six Months by the Local Bartenders' League-- Meeting Largely Attended.

The local Bartenders' League held its meeting Sunday afternoon and installed officers for the ensuing six months as follows:

- A. A. Crawford, president.
E. H. Haynor, vice president.
C. P. Dallas, financial recording secretary.
W. H. Stuck, treasurer.
John F. Kearns, chaplain.
Z. W. Rollins, inspector.
Frank McDonnell, inside guard.
Odia Rollins, outside guard.
Fred Gaus, business manager.
R. A. Davis, E. B. Connell and M. F.
McDonnell, trustees.
The meeting was largely attended and enthusiasm abounded.

BASEBALL TEAMS BROKE EVEN IN SPIRITED CONTEST

The Up-Town and East End basebal teams had a very spirited contest on the Jackson grounds Monday afternoon and at the end of the thirteenth and last inning they broke even on the score each team earning eight runs in the game. Joe Kerdin is captain of the Up-Towns and Johnny Kilken manager.
Junior Quinn has the distinction of being captain of the East Ends and Charlie Stanfield carries the honors as manager.
The positions of the others on the Up-Town team are equally conspicuous.

Dumping Garbage Must Stop.

Since the garbage ordinances went into effect some people have been making dumping grounds of the suburbs, especially in Broad Oaks, and the county health board has been appealed to. As the result Dr. Halterman, county physician, is posting notices that this must not be done in the future.

Recovers From Burns.

Patrick Martin was discharged from the Harrison County Hospital Monday after having been in inmate seven weeks suffering from burns received by an explosion in the coal mine east of the city.
At first it was thought they would prove fatal, but he has about fully recovered.

Eustace Lyon Recovering.

Eustace Lyon, the well-known printer who suffers from typhoid fever at the home of his father, Andrew Lyon, is on the road to recovery, although it will be several weeks yet before he will be out.

EVIDENCE IS LOOMIS IS DEAD

EVERYTHING POINTS TO HIS HAV-ING FALLEN OVERBOARD, SAY SHIP'S OFFICERS.

THEY ARE POSITIVE HE DID NOT LAND AT PLYMOUTH, AND WAS LAST SEEN ON UPPER DECK.

Ellis Says He Drank a Good Deal the Last Few Days and Persisted in Sitting in Reckless Way Close to Rail Although Often Warned.

By Associated Press.

Bremen, Germany, June 27.—All evidence points to the death of Kent Loomis by accident.

The officers of the vessel are positive he did not get off at Plymouth. He was last seen going to the upper deck after the captain's dinner.

Ellis says Loomis persisted in sitting in a reckless way close to the rail, although he was often warned. He said he also drank a good deal the last few days on the ship. No other witnesses spoke of this.

CARSKADON

Advertises Himself in Unique Manner
For the Prohibition Nomination For the Presidency.

According to the following clipping West Virginia has an aspirant for the presidential nomination on the Prohibition ticket, T. R. Carskadon, of Radcl-Hill. The information is contained in the appended from the St. Louis Republic:

"Carskadon, who is said to be a probable candidate of the Prohibition party for President of the United States, wishes to pay his respects to the President of the greatest fair on earth, but would rather be a doorknocker in the house of the Lord than to dwell in the bent of political wickedness."

This unique card was presented to President D. R. Francis by T. R. Cars-kadon, of Radcl Hill, W. Va., at the Administration building Sunday afternoon and succeeded in securing an audience for that gentleman without further ceremony.

Mr. Carskadon is an inventor, and called to see the head of the exposition in connection with the large barns which are about to be erected on the fair grounds for the stock exhibition. Thinking that perhaps an ordinary card would have no effect upon the busy president and, as he stated, not having the influential backing of some congressman or senator, he wrote the sentence which had the desired effect.

Mr. Carskadon has received word from many of the delegates to the Prohibition convention at Indianapolis, June 29, that
